

Welcome

We want to welcome all new and returning families to CWM and the Precious Penguins. Our goal is to make sure that all children are ready, socially, emotionally, and academically, for the next step in the learning process. Social interaction occurs during center, music, playground, and circle time. We are truly a family at CWM, and we think of all students as "Our Kids."

The Precious Penguins will be a wonderful place where your children can explore their environment and develop independence. Each child is different, and we strive to meet their needs to the best of our ability.

Please look over the following reminders to help the year run more smoothly:

- What to bring with you?

- Lunch box labeled with first and last name. (If you would like Milk, send in a separate cup)
- Water Cup filled with water
- Small Backpack (A folder will go home daily)
- Nap Mat (first day of week)
- All items need to be labeled each day. Including: Jackets, backpacks, cups, lunchboxes.

- Lunch Time

- Please make sure to pack finger foods that may be kept in their lunch box in the classroom.
- We also do NOT have use of the microwave; they are used for the younger classes.
- Please put an ice block in your lunch box, we are not able to put them in the fridge.
- No Juice Boxes, these are very hard for the children.

- Nap Time

- We will provide the blue cot; you will need to bring a comfy nap mat.
- See the Nap Time page for places you can find the roll up nap mats.

- Potty Training

- Our teachers will not potty train your child.
- They will aide in the process that you are doing at home.
- If your child is wearing pull-ups, please send the easy-off sides for timely changing.

If you have any questions or concerns, please call the CWM office between 7am-5:30pm Monday-Friday.

All About Me

Hi! My name is Samantha, I am originally from North Carolina, and we moved here a little over a year ago. I live in Atascocita with my husband and three children. I have two little ones who attend CWM and my oldest is in Elem School.

My family and I enjoy adventures outside, cooking and reading books. I look forward to getting to know all your children, helping them grow and learn, this year!
